

Nemo Link Explicit Day Ahead Auction Consultation –Febeliec reaction

Febeliec thanks NemoLink and Elia for the opportunity to respond to this consultation.

- (a) Do you agree with the proposed Day Ahead auction time change and the shortening of the LT nomination window?

Febeliec understands the potential benefits of modifying the timing of the DA auction for the UK side, but regrets these potential benefits have been insufficiently quantified or documented. Moreover, Febeliec regrets the potential disadvantages as mentioned, amongst others, in § 11 of the proposal have not been substantiated nor documented. Febeliec therefore has insufficient arguments to support the proposed change in timing.

- (b) Do you agree with the movement of the Day Ahead Firmness Deadline from 11:00 to 09:00CE(S)T?

Febeliec supports this part of the proposal.

- (c) Do you agree with shortening the length of the day ahead nomination window from 14:00 to 13:30 CE(S)T?

See answer to (a)

- (d) Do you agree a Day Ahead energy auction in GB earlier than SDAC is desirable?
Febeliec has no position on this issue.

- (e) How important is a single GB energy reference price?
Febeliec has no position on this issue.
